1. In the evening of 13 July 1950 LIN Piao and Annidenov, his Soviet adviser,* [REDACTED] LIN was planning a meeting of the Central-South China Military and Political Council in Hankow on 20 July.
2. On 15 July the Kwangtung Military District Command ordered military sub-districts to re-enlist discharged Communist irregulars. One or two battalions will be recruited from each hsien and trained for three months by military and political instructors sent from command headquarters. After training, the men will be organized into a public security division for Kwangtung garrison duty. The entire organization will include eight divisions, commanders of which will be appointed by the military district command.
3. On 19 July the Canton Military Control Commission (MCC) ordered the Shihchi (113-22,22-30) MCC to re-enlist disbanded Communist irregulars and register all males and females born between 1915 and 1940. Farm associations are responsible for the registration. Selected registrants will be sent to Canton for an unstated purpose.
4. On 7 July the Canton MCC ordered the Chungshan (113-22, 22-30) MCC to strengthen defense works in the area for use against Nationalist guerrilla raids. Positions strengthened are as follows:
 - a. Four heavy gun positions, ten machine guns and trenches at Hengmen (113-, 22-).
 - b. Nineteen machine guns, arranged in an arc pointing southeast, at Chiao (113-39, 22-24).
